March 1827 in New York—the same year that slavery was abolished in the state.