The History Of The Northern Interior Of British Columbia

A. G Morice

Regional New British Columbia: the undeveloped areas of the Bureau of Provincial Information Place: Victoria B.C.
Note: printed by William H. Cullin
The Interior comprises over 70 of the province and well. Country – sometimes considered the northern end of The History of the Northern Interior of British Columbia. - Fadedpage
Get this from a library! The History of the Northern Interior of British Columbia, formerly New Caledonia. 1660-1880 With map and illustrations Adrien Gabriel
The history of the northern interior of British Columbia: formerly New. Temporarily out of stock. Order now and well deliver when available. Well e-mail you with an estimated delivery date as soon as we have more information.